The City of Toronto holds public consultations as one way to engage residents in the life of their city. We invite you to get involved.

Providing More Overnight On-Street Permit Parking in Toronto & East York District

Public Consultation

In October 2017, Toronto and East York Community Council directed staff to solicit feedback from residents on the proposal to provide Residential On-street Permit Parking on streets that do not have permit parking in Toronto and East York District.

Background

Parking Permits allow residents to legally park overnight on a permitted street or on streets within a designated area. A valid permit also exempts vehicles from daytime maximum parking durations. In the Toronto and East York Community Council District, there are streets with and without the Permit Parking Program. These gaps in the program provide inconsistent opportunities for residents and their guests to legally park overnight near their homes.

We would like to hear from you.
